Andric Severance is a pianist, composer, performer, teacher, and band-leader from Burlington, Vermont. An experienced and versatile pro, Andric is a pianist with energetic technique and a composer who flavors his tunes with complex Latin rhythms and jazz harmonies. As a composer, bandleader, and sideman he makes a living playing Salsa, Afrobeat, soul, and Latin Jazz.

When not leading his Latin Jazz outfit - the Andric Severance Xtet, his music projects include Music Director, Arranger, and Keyboardist for Vermont's premiere Salsa Band: Afinque; and Keyboard player for the seven piece Afro-funk ensemble Barika.

Andric Severance Xtet

Latin Jazz and Salsa Rhythms

Andric Severance is a joyful presence on the keyboards with a solid, adventurous band.

From New York City to Ri De Janeiro, then to Havana, and home again to Vermont. The Andric Severance Xtet takes a Salsa-centric jazz journey, playing original music as well as big classic salsa tunes arranged for quartet. This isn't your grandmother's Latin Jazz. A firey rhythm band featuring Caleb Bronz on drums, Scott Dean on percussion, Giovanni Rovetto on bass, and Andric Severance on piano. It's all about the rhythm.

The Andric Severance Xtet brings a diverse repertoire of original and highly creative music to the Vermont jazz scene.

This is music suitable for quiet listening or ecstatic dancing.
